

The Hungarian Helicon Society

Invites you to join us on a Guided Tour of the:

TEXTILE MUSEUM OF CANADA connecting cloth, culture & art

One of Toronto's most engaging visual arts organizations. With more than 12,000 objects from more than 200 countries and regions, the TMC's permanent collection celebrates cultural diversity and included traditional fabrics, garments, carpets and related artifacts.

Sunday, December 7th, 2 – 4 pm

55 Centre Avenue, Toronto, M5G 2H5, 416-599-5321

General Admission: $15 Seniors: $10

The Hungarian connection dates back to 1989 when the museum was opened by the architect, THOMAS KALMAN, - who was an avid collector, well respected in the field of textiles. Kalman bequeathed a very large portion of his oriental carpet collection to the museum. Kalman's daughter, Audry writes: "The one thing that my father had, was quite a few Hungarian collector friends, one of them being Kalman Czegledi".